

STELMAKH_CORP Business Core

Commercial Single-Server License

Version: 1.0

License Number: LC-2026-0001

Issue Date: 11 August 2026

Licensee: Buyer's name

Licensor: Stelmakh© Corp™

1. Grant of License

Stelmakh© Corp™ grants the Licensee a non-exclusive, non-transferable right to install and use the STELMAKH_CORP Business Core database schema on one (1) server only.

This license permits usage rights only*.

No other rights are granted.

The license applies only to a single physical server. Virtual machines, hypervisors, containers, VPS/VDS or any virtualized environments are strictly prohibited.

In case the Licensee operates a physical cluster, each physical node of the cluster on which the STELMAKH_CORP Business Core is installed or executed requires a separate license.

Cluster-wide or shared licensing is not permitted.

The license is irrevocable and non-refundable.

Once the software product has been delivered, no refund can be issued, as the client obtains full access to the architecture and functionality of STELMAKH_CORP.

The following additional limitations apply:

The Licensee is strictly prohibited from reverse-engineering, decompiling, disassembling, analyzing, or attempting to derive the internal structure, schema design, architectural principles, or any proprietary components of the STELMAKH_CORP Business Core.

The Licensee is strictly prohibited from publishing, disclosing, sharing, or making available the database schema, structure, relationships, domains, constraints, or any architectural elements of the STELMAKH_CORP Business Core to any third party, whether publicly or privately.

The license is granted exclusively to the legal entity identified as the Licensee.
In the event of a company sale, merger, acquisition, restructuring, liquidation, or bankruptcy, this license shall be automatically terminated.

The Licensee is not permitted to transfer, assign, sell, or otherwise convey the license or any rights granted under it to any successor entity, buyer, acquiring party, or third party under any circumstances.

A Distributor or Partner may purchase a single-server license for internal use and for demonstrating the STELMAKH_CORP Business Core to potential customers.

This demonstration use does not grant any rights to deploy, install, or activate the product on customer infrastructure. Each customer must obtain their own valid license for any deployment.

A Distributor or Partner holds the same rights and obligations as any Licensee under this agreement. All restrictions, limitations, prohibitions, and requirements defined in this license apply equally to the Distributor or Partner without exception.

2. Restrictions

The Licensee is strictly prohibited from:

- Selling the product in any form
- Reselling or offering the product to third parties
- Redistributing the product, publicly or privately
- Providing the product as part of a SaaS, cloud, hosted or subscription service
- Sublicensing the product
- Transferring the license to any other party
- Publishing, sharing or making the product available online
- Using the product to create a competing database or derivative product

Any violation of these restrictions results in immediate termination of the license.

3. Ownership

All intellectual property rights in the STELMAKH_CORP Business Core remain the exclusive property of Stelmakh© Corp™.

This license does not transfer ownership of the product.

4. Schema Extension Rights

The Licensee may extend the database schema by adding new tables, fields, indexes or domains strictly for internal business purposes and internal business growth. Such extensions are permitted only within the Licensee's own company and exclusively on the number of physical servers covered by valid licenses held by the Licensee.

Schema extensions do not grant any rights to modify, alter, replicate, or re-engineer the core architecture. The structural framework, design principles and base schema of the STELMAKH_CORP Business Core remain the exclusive intellectual property of Stelmakh© Corp™.

Any attempt to apply extended versions of the schema to servers not covered by valid licenses, redistribute extended versions, transfer them to external entities, or incorporate the framework into external or commercial products is strictly prohibited.

These limitations apply permanently and survive termination of the license.

5. Warranty Disclaimer

The product is provided "as is" without warranty of any kind, express or implied.

Stelmakh© Corp™ shall not be liable for any damages arising from the use or inability to use the product.

6. Termination

This license is automatically terminated if the Licensee breaches any of the restrictions listed above.

Upon termination, the Licensee must immediately cease all use of the product and delete all copies.

7. Governing Law

This license shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with UK commercial and intellectual property law.

8. License Verification & Password Recovery

The Licensee acknowledges that the License Number and Archive Password constitute the unique identifiers of this license.

Loss of the password does not terminate the license, but requires identity verification before a replacement password is issued.

To verify legitimate ownership of the license, the Licensee must provide the following documents:

- Official legal name of the company
- Corporate registration number and the date of license acquisition
- Official document confirming the date of company creation
- Document confirming that the requester is legally authorized to act on behalf of the company

If the Licensee fails to provide complete, consistent, and verifiable documentation, the license shall be considered invalid and may be revoked.

Stelmakh© Corp™ reserves the right to deny password re-issuance if legitimate ownership cannot be proven.

9. Corporate Transfer, Sale, Bankruptcy and Mandatory Notification

This license is granted exclusively to the legal entity identified as the Licensee.

In the event of a company sale, merger, acquisition, restructuring, liquidation, or bankruptcy, the license shall be automatically terminated and considered void.

The Licensee is strictly prohibited from transferring, assigning, selling, or otherwise conveying the license or any rights granted under it to any successor entity, buyer, acquiring party, or third party under any circumstances.

The Licensee is obligated to notify the Licenser in writing no later than three (3) months prior to any planned corporate sale, merger, acquisition, restructuring, or other event that may affect the legal identity or ownership of the Licensee.

Failure to provide timely notification constitutes a material breach of this agreement and results in immediate termination of the license.

These limitations apply permanently and survive termination of the license.

10. Enforcement, Legal Remedies and Automatic License Termination

In the event of any breach of this license agreement, Stelmakh© Corp™ reserves the full right to initiate legal action, including claims for damages, financial compensation, and any other remedies available under applicable law.

Any violation of the terms, restrictions, or limitations set forth in this agreement results in the immediate and automatic termination of all licenses held by the Licensee, without the need for prior notice.

Upon termination, the Licensee must immediately cease all use of the product and permanently delete all copies of the STELMAKH_CORP Business Core, including any extensions, modifications, or derivative works created within the Licensee's infrastructure.

These enforcement rights apply permanently and survive termination of the license.
